EVICCTIONS FOR OCCUPANCY BY LANDLORD, LANDLORD'S IMMEDIATE FAMILY OR A RESIDENT MANAGER Rent Stabilization Bulletin

The Rent Stabilization Ordinance (RSO) and the Just Cause Ordinance (JCO) limit the number of reasons a landlord may bring legal action to recover possession of a rental unit. One of the legal reasons for evicting an existing tenant is when a landlord seeks in good faith to recover possession of the rental unit for use and occupancy by the owner, spouse, grandchildren, children, parents or grandparents, or a resident manager (Los Angeles Municipal Code (LAMC) 151.09.A.8 & 165.03.H). Corporations may not evict for owner of family occupancy, but may evict for resident manager occupancy only if the law requires that a resident manager be provided in the building (ex. buildings of 16 units or more) or the terms of a regulatory agreement require an on-site manager.

PROCEDURE

Landlords must comply with the restrictions and requirements of LAMC Section 151.30, when seeking to recover a rental unit for the specific individuals allowed under Sections 151.09 A.8 & 165.03.H. The landlord must file a completed Declaration Of Intent to Evict form with the Department.

1. The Declaration must be filed prior to giving the tenant the notice of termination of tenancy required by State law.
2. The landlord makes a copy of the filed Declaration of Intent to Evict and serves it to the tenant along with the termination of tenancy notice after filing the Declaration with the Department. The landlord must state in the termination notice the reason for the eviction.
3. In addition to filing the Declaration of Intent to Evict, a copy of notice of termination of tenancy must be filed with the Department within 3 business days after serving it to the tenant. The notice of termination can be filed online at <https://lahd.service-now.com/efs>.

How to File

Property owners can file the Declaration of Intent to Evict and the Relocation Services or Demolition Monitoring Services Application in person at one of the public counters or may mail it to LAHD at PO BOX 17100 Los Angeles, CA 90057. Application fees are payable to the City of Los Angeles-LAHD. Include a copy of the grant deed and if the property is owned by a trust, submit a copy of the trust instrument which identifies any trustee, trustor and beneficiary.

RELOCATION ASSISTANCE

Landlords are required to provide monetary relocation assistance when they evict a tenant to move in themselves, spouse, parents, grandparents, children, grandchildren or for a resident manager. The amounts are found in the Relocation Assistance Bulletin. A landlord may deduct rental debt from the relocation amount. It is recommended the landlord offer to the tenant an itemized accounting of the exact rental debt to be deducted.

Mom & Pop Landlords - Reduced Relocation Amounts

Only for eviction under either the RSO or JCO for owner or family occupancy may a Mom & Pop landlord qualify for a reduced relocation fee, pursuant to Ordinance 180,747. This reduced fee applies, if there are four or less units on the property containing the rental unit, the landlord owns no more than one other single-family home on a separate lot in Los Angeles, and the eligible relative moving into the rental unit does not own residential property in the City. For more information, please refer to Ordinance 180,747 and the Relocation Assistance Bulletin, which provides current relocation amounts. The landlord cannot be a corporate entity.

Just Cause Ordinance and Single Family Dwellings - One Month's Rent Equivalent

A landlord may qualify to pay only one month's rent equivalent for relocation only for a stand alone single family dwelling subject to the Just Cause Ordinance that is owned by a natural person who owns no more than four dwelling units and one single family dwelling on a separate parcel in the City of Los Angeles. This is not available for condominiums or for RSO units. (See Ordinance 187737).

Employee Managers

Relocation assistance is not required when evicting an Employee-Resident manager to replace them with a new Resident manager. If the resident manager is a Manager-Tenant receiving free or reduced rent with no other compensation, they may be entitled to relocation assistance. (See RAC Regulation Section 920.00, Managers as Tenants).

Method of Relocation Payment

Relocation payment to tenants shall be made within 15 days after service of a written notice of termination of tenancy; however, the landlord may elect to deposit the monetary relocation benefits into an escrow account to be disbursed to the tenant upon vacating and for moving expenses. Escrow instructions must be given to tenants within 15 days. (See RAC Regulation Section 960.00, Relocation Assistance Escrow Accounts).

OWNERSHIP REQUIREMENTS FOR OCCUPANCY BY OWNER OR A FAMILY MEMBER

To recover possession of a rental unit for owner occupancy, a landlord must own title to at least 25% of the property or be a beneficiary with an interest of at least 25% in a trust that owns the property. A landlord may recover possession of a rental unit for family occupancy only if the landlord is a natural person who possesses legal title to at least 50% of the property or is a beneficiary with an interest of at least 50 percent in a trust that owns the property.

Rent Stabilization Bulletin

GOOD FAITH INTENTION TO OCCUPY AND VERIFICATION REQUIREMENT

The new occupant must move in within 3 months of vacancy and intend to occupy the rental unit for at least 2 years, pursuant to LAMC Section 151.30 B. Failure to do either may be evidence of a bad faith eviction. The landlord must file a re-rental notice with the LAHD within 3 months of evicting a tenant and on the 1st and 2nd year filing anniversary after the tenant vacates the rental unit, stating the replacement tenant still occupies the unit.

If an owner decides to re-rent or lease a unit within the two years following a tenancy termination under for owner, family or resident manager occupancy, the previously displaced tenant (s) must be notified and allowed the right of first refusal, provided that the tenant (s) advised the landlord in writing within 30 days of displacement of the tenant's desire to consider an offer to renew tenancy.

TENANT PROTECTIONS

The LAMC prohibits evictions of tenants in the following situations:

1. A landlord cannot evict if a comparable unit is vacant. Comparable units are ones that have the same number of bedrooms.
2. The landlord cannot evict a tenant if they are not the most recent tenant to occupy a unit with the same number of needed bedrooms, unless the landlord needs a different unit due to medical necessity as certified by a treating physician.
3. A landlord cannot evict tenants who have resided in the rental unit for at least ten years and are at least 62 years of age or disabled or handicapped.
4. A landlord cannot evict tenants who are terminally ill as certified by a treating physician regardless of length of tenancy.

PENALTIES AND FEES

There is an administrative fee of $75.00 to terminate a tenancy to move-in a resident manager, owner or eligible family member. A landlord who evicts in bad faith is liable to the evicted tenant for treble damages, equitable relief and attorney's fees, and the City may sue for punitive damages and equitable relief. If a landlord fails to file the required Landlord Declaration forms, the landlord is liable for a fee of $250.00 per day of delinquency.

The LAMC provides for criminal penalties for violation of the ordinance. Any landlord who willfully, with the intent to deceive, files a Landlord Declaration that contains false or misleading information shall be guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than $500 or by imprisonment in the County Jail for not more than six months or both.

Rent Stabilization Bulletin

RENT LEVEL AFTER AN EVICTION FOR IMMEDIATE FAMILY (Only for RSO Units)

The rent level on a rental unit, after the family member or resident manager terminates occupancy, shall be restored to the rent level prior to the eviction, plus any automatic increases that are due. The unit is not decontrolled when the family member or resident manager vacates, and the rent may not be raised to the market level.

Rent Stabilization Bulletin

All tenant not-at-fault evictions require payment of relocation assistance and the filing of a Declaration of Intent to Evict form with the Los Angeles Housing Department (LAHD) prior to evicting tenants from units covered by the Rent Stabilization Ordinance (RSO) or the Just Cause Ordinance (JCO). Failure to file the Landlord Declaration with the LAHD makes the eviction a violation of the RSO or JCO.

Not-At-Fault Reasons for Eviction

1. The landlord evicts for the occupancy for her/himself, spouse, grandchildren, children, parents or grandparents, or a resident manager (Los Angeles Municipal Code (LAMC) 151.09.A.8, 165.03.H.). Evictions for the purpose of resident manager occupancy are allowed only if required by law or an affordable housing covenant or regulatory agreement. Landlords must comply with the restrictions and requirements of LAMC Section 151.30.
2. The landlord seeks in good faith to recover possession of the rental unit to demolish, convert to a commercial use, or remove the rental unit from rental housing use (LAMC 151.09.A.10, 165.03.I). For RSO units, these are considered Ellis Act (California Government Code 7060.4) evictions and the landlord must comply with the requirements of LAMC 151.22-151.28.
3. The landlord seeks to recover possession of the rental unit to complete substantial remodel, provided the landlord has secured permits necessary and served a copy of them with a written termination notice stating the reason for termination, the type of scope of the work, why the work cannot be reasonably accomplished in a safe manner with the tenant in place and why the work requires the tenant to vacate for at least 30 days. "Substantial remodel" shall have the same meaning as the term is defined in California Civil Code Section 1946.2. This is only for units which are subject to JCO and not for RSO units. (LAMC 165.03.I.(2))
4. The landlord evicts to comply with a governmental agency's Order to Vacate (LAMC 151.09.A.11, 165.03.J.). Landlords must file a Landlord Declaration of Intent to Evict prior to giving notice to tenants. A copy of the notice must also be filed with LAHD no later than 3 days after it is served. Notices can only be served after the landlord files the Declaration with LAHD.
5. The Secretary of Housing and Urban Development is both the owner and plaintiff and seeks to recover possession to vacate the property prior to sale (LAMC 151.09.A.12, 165.03.K.).
6. Residential Hotel Unit conversion or demolition (LAMC 151.09.A.13, 165.03.L.).
7. The landlord seeks to recover possession of the rental unit to convert the subject property to an affordable housing accommodation (LAMC 151.09.A.14, 165.03.M.).
8. The landlord demolishes the property or converts the use of the property to condominiums, stock cooperatives, community apartment projects, hotels and commercial uses, regardless of whether the property is subject to the RSO OR JCO (LAMC 47.06 & 47.07).

How Much Relocation Assistance Is Required?

The amount of relocation fees due to the tenant by the landlord depends on whether the tenant is an eligible or qualified tenant, the length of tenancy, and the tenant's income. Relocation Assistance is paid per unit, not per tenant. For relocation amounts, refer to the Relocation Assistance and the HUD Low Income Limits charts on page 3.

- Qualified tenant - A qualified tenant is any tenant who on the date of service of the written notice of termination is 62 years of age or older; handicapped, as defined in Section 50072 of the California Health and Safety Code, or disabled, as defined in Title 42 of the United States Code, Section 423; or who has one or more minor dependent children (as determined for federal income tax purposes).
- Eligible tenant - Unless a tenant is a qualified tenant as explained above, the tenant is an eligible tenant and is entitled to receive a relocation assistance amount that depends on length of time in the unit and income.
- Low Income Tenant - A tenant whose income is 80 percent or less of the Area Median Income, as adjusted for household size, as defined by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, regardless of the length of tenancy.
- Mom and Pop properties may pay reduced relocation assistance payments to their tenants for a good faith eviction for occupancy by the owner or eligible relative, provided that requirements in Section 151.30 of the LAMC are met. This applies only for evictions for occupancy by owner, family or manager.
- Single Family Dwellings Owned by Natural Persons When the residential real property is a single-family dwelling subject to the JCO and the owner is a natural person, including natural persons who hold properties in a trust or registered legal entity controlled by that natural person, who owns no more than four dwelling units and a single-family home on a separate lot in the City of Los Angeles: one month's rent that was in effect when the landlord served the written notice to terminate the tenancy, as either a monetary payment or credit. Los Angeles Municipal Code Section 151.30(E) shall not apply. (LAMC 165.06.A.(6)).

The reduced fee for Mom and Pop properties applies, if all of the following conditions exist:

1. The building containing the rental unit contains four or fewer rental units;
2. The landlord has not utilized this provision during the previous three years;
3. The landlord owns no more than four units of residential property and a single-family home on a separate lot in the City of Los Angeles; and
4. Any eligible relative for whom the landlord is recovering possession of the rental unit does not own residential property in the City of Los Angeles.

How and When Shall Landlords Provide Payment

The Ordinance requires that relocation assistance payments be made as follows:

1. The entire fee shall be paid to a tenant who is the only tenant in a rental unit.
2. If two or more tenants occupy a rental unit, then each tenant shall be paid an equal prorate share of the fee.
3. If more than one fee payment amount applies to a unit, the landlord pays the higher amount for the unit.

The Ordinance requires timely relocation assistance payments as follows:

1. Payment shall be made available within fifteen (15) days of service of the written notice of eviction; however,
2. The landlord may, at the landlord's sole discretion and at the landlord's cost, elect to pay the monetary relocation benefits through an escrow account. The monies must be placed in the escrow account within the required 15-day period. The escrow account must provide for payments to the tenant(s) for actual relocation expenses incurred by the tenant prior to vacating the unit for the following relocation expenses: first and last month's rent; security deposit; utility connection charges; moving expenses. Payments from the escrow account shall be made within three (3) working days of receiving a request for payment. ## RELOCATION ASSISTANCE QUESTIONS

Can a tenant request relocation fees and services prior to being served with a Notice to Terminate Tenancy, if a tentative parcel or tract map for a condominium conversion has been approved?

If a tentative parcel or tract map for a condominium conversion has been approved by the City of Los Angeles Planning Department, the tenant may elect to relocate without receiving a Notice to Terminate Tenancy from the landlord (LAMC Sec. 47.06.D.2). The landlord is still responsible for the payment of relocation assistance in these cases.

How and where do I establish an escrow account, if I choose to do so?

The landlord may place the escrow account in any bank, savings and loan association, or credit union with federal deposit insurance, or with any broker who is licensed by the California Corporate Commission, or with a client trust account of an attorney currently eligible to practice law in California pursuant to the records of the State Bar of California that is reasonably accessible to the tenant(s) during normal business hours. (RAC Regulations, Section 960.00.)

On what basis does a tenant file a complaint, and how?

Non-payment dispute - In an action by the landlord to recover possession of a rental unit, the tenant may raise as an affirmative defense the failure of the landlord to provide relocation assistance. Complaint forms may be obtained and filed with the LAHD for illegal eviction when the landlord has not provided relocation assistance.

Escrow Dispute - Where there is an escrow dispute, dispute notices must be sent to the LAHD by the escrow holder. A copy of the escrow instructions must accompany the notice. (RAC Regulations, Section 967.00.)
